WEATHER.

Oregon and Washington—Fair and continued cold.

THE WIDER INFLUENCE.

The reorganization of the Chamber of Commerce of this city and the absorption of all other extraneous groups, such as the civic improvement clubs, will have several very desirable tendencies. It will create a chamber membership involving fixed representation from every part of the city and make the working spirit of the new body more uniform, authoritative and emphatic; it will widen the individual interest of the taxpayers and merge it wholesomely for the common good; it will amplify and lend stronger civic countenance to every effort, demand and ambition of the city and command success and quicker results than could ever be attained by the lesser and segregated group. It is a wise and healthful move and has plenty of promise from its sheer inception. We hope it will be perfected, and, for one, the Astorian will stand by it earnestly.

SOME QUICKENING SIGNS.

We of Astoria are carrying over from the realm of 1906 some quickening signs for the new year, not the least of which is the extension of the Astoria & Columbia River Railway from Seaside to Tillamook. This means much for the whole coast country south of us, as well as for this city, and is a large asset in the calculations of the near future. Rumor is busy with all sorts and conditions of yarns of the sale of this property, and their very vagueness puts them beyond the test of authentic denial or confirmation. But this we of Astoria do know: That the present owner of the road, A. B. Hammond, is, primarily, a good friend to the territory it occupies; this has been proven, time and again, and is fortified by the express knowledge that he is deeply interested in the expansion of Astoria and her coast country upon the additional predicate that he is the owner of immense private interests, separate from the road, yet intimately related to it and its extension. And the failure of the road to sell, this time, may prove infinitely better for him and for all of us.

SUBSIDIES NOW!

For years the ocean steamship men have tried to get more money out of the government in the shape of subsidies, but to no avail. Now, however, they expect to get "what is coming to them." The people are rude enough to say that would mean the penitentiary. One way of looking at the matter is that it will not be a decided advantage to seafaring men, for their wages are now notoriously small. The employees of shipbuilding companies are largely Irish and steel workers who can get employment at high wages any time. The large ship owners will be the ones to get the large subsidies, and rich men do not need more money. The ship builders are also rich men, and should be satisfied after robbing the government for years on the fat contracts for the navy department. The foreign ships carry cargoes from New York at so low a rate that men will not build boats to compete with them. If the ship owners and builders are rich, if the workers are busy and not wanting employment; if the foreigners carry our exports cheaper than we can carry them, will some one please rise and explain in a sensible way why the government should set men up in business with the understanding that the business will not pay—pouring money in a rat-hole?

LEARN A TRADE.

There are more young men in the penitentiaries of this country learning trades than there are outside of them learning trades. The principal cause of this is that we are educating our young men for idle gentlemen, trying to make lawyers, preachers, doctors and clerks out of material that is needed for blacksmiths, carpenters, merchants and other honest "hewers of wood and drawers of water." It is a mistake and a big one, to teach boys and girls to believe that labor is disgraceful and to do nothing for a living is more becoming to society. Hang such society! It is rotten to the core and is ruining our country today; and there are sons and daughters who are now being educated to play "the leading lady" and "walking gentleman" in the great drama of life, who will light out for the poorhouse or the penitentiary before the curtain drops on the last sad act of the play to which they have been educated by their too indulgent parents!

EDITORIAL SALAD.

Some men would pop the question several months sooner if they were mind readers.

Everything comes to him who waits, but they are the kind of things that he doesn't enjoy.

It is stated that not one bride was over 22 years old in the 346,590 marriages in Japan last year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman of Clifton, Mich., is 113, reads the Bible constantly and smokes her pipe regularly.

An Indiana woman announces that she is willing to pay $5 for a husband. In some parts of the country she could get two for that money.

There may be some truth in the statement that all men are fools, but it is a noticeable fact that they are not reminded of it so often if they remain single.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw says he notices a scarcity of small bills. Same here. Plenty of large bills, of course, but can't get change. Very provoking.

Cardinal Gibbons recently said that the dread of exposure in the public press keeps man a man sticking close to the path of rectitude who otherwise would stray off into the byways of graft.

A New York paper pithily remarks: "If there were no tariff the cars on hand would be a great number too many to do the business that would have to be handled." No one ever heard of a car famine when the Wilson act was in force.

A level-headed exchange says: "Learn this one thing; learn it early in life and learn it well, that the man who does not believe as you do is not always a fool. The fact that you hold views not in accord with your neighbor is not proof positive that you are right and he is wrong, nor is it evidence that your neighbor is insincere. If this were not true, then all smart men would belong to one party and all good men to one church. And if all belonged to one party and one church, they would break up both party and church."

CURED OF LUNG TROUBLE.

It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds and coughing was constant both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone, and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Chas. Rogers' drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Bee's Laxative Cough Syrup containing Honey and Tar, is especially appropriate for children, no opiates or poisons of any character, conforms to the conditions of the National Pure Food and Drug Law, June 30, 1906. For Croup, Whooping Cough, etc. It expels Coughs and Colds by gently moving the bowels. Guaranteed. Sold by Frank Hart's Drug Store.

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking a few more bottles, I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at Chas. Rogers' drug store. Price 50c.

WHAT WIVES WANT.

An occasional petting, but never in public.

A word of praise for a nice dinner or a becoming dress.

A companion, not merely a supporter, in her husband.

A kind word sometimes more than a new set of dishes.

To feel that the experience of every day justifies her preference for this man.

To be treated with a dignity and a tender consideration which will tell her plainer than words that her husband has not regretted his choice.

A CARD.

This is to certify that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures a gripe cough and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

APPEARANCES

Often a person is sized up by his appearance; by the tone that surrounds him. And more often a business house is sized up by the stationary it uses. A cheap letter head or a poor bill head gives a mighty poor first impression and makes business harder to transact. Good printing costs no more than poor printing. The first impression is half the battle in business. You wouldn't employ a "sloppy" salesman; why put up with "sloppy" stationery, that gives a wrong impression of the importance of your business. Let us do your printing and help you to make that ten strike.
